1999 PUBLICATIONS

Arturo Herrera, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, is an internationally known artist who had a one-week visiting artist residency here at Normal Editions Workshop in March 1998. This program was partially sponsored by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, an agency of the State of Illinois. Mr. Herrera collaborated with the NEW staff during his stay to produce two limited edition prints. Tale is a

The edition of 30 prints was hand-printed by Richard Finch and Veda Rives, with assistance from Jessica Benjamin, Mike Hornyak, Jessica Gomula-Colvin, Meda Rives, and Amy Schmierbach. The 14 by 30 inch image is printed in black on Kitakata paper, 19 9/16 by 35 1/2 inches. Price available upon request.

Also due to be released soon is the second edition by Arturo Herrera, a seven color lithograph. The 31 by 24 1/4 inch paper carries a 16 1/4 by 18 1/4 inch collage. Four separate elements carry fragments of the printed image and are individually cut and assembled together to form the print. Papers include: white BFK Rives, unsized; Italia, and BFK Rives Lightweight. The image was accomplished photographically with the aid of computer technology in scanning and resizing elements from the artist's preliminary collage. Both positive and negative working plates were employed in the various printing runs. The edition of 46 prints was hand-printed by Veda Rives and Richard Finch with assistance from Mike Hornyak, Jessica Gomula-Colvin, Meda Rives, and Amy Schmierbach. Price available upon request. We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the Illinois Arts Council for their support of this project.

1999 CONTRACT PROJECTS

Several artists participated in the contract printing services available from our workshop. John Himmelfarb, a Chicago artist, had four editions printed. Ilya Kabakov, a native of Russia who lives and works in New York, had an intaglio edition printed. Paul Sierra, a Chicago artist, had two lithographs printed.

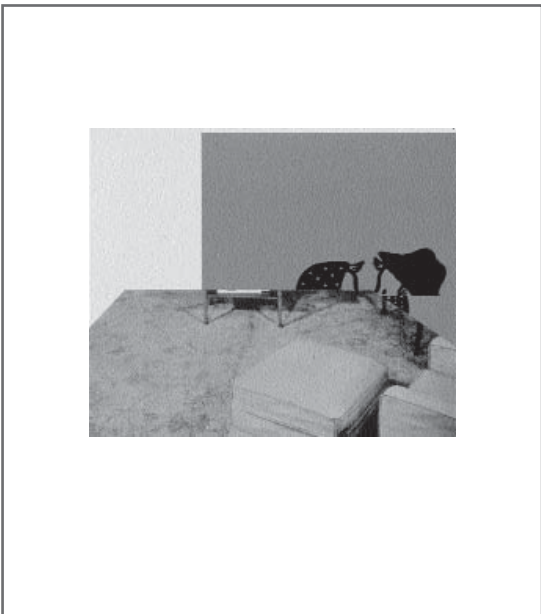

Colorado by John Himmelfarb

Colorado by John Himmelfarb is a two color intaglio print in black with a red surface roll. Intaglio techniques including sugar-lift and aquatint were used to create the image on a copper plate. The 2 by 11 7/8 inch image is printed on Arches Cover, white paper, 5 by 15 inches. The edition of 30 was printed by Mike Hornyak with assistance from Richard Finch, Jessica Gomula-Colvin, Veda Rives, and Amy Schmierbach. A small edition of five prints from the same plate was printed in black on Arches Cover, by Mike Hornyak. This edition is entitled Silencio.

The edition of 40 prints was hand-printed in brown ink by Matt Pulford, Jessica Benjamin, Veda Rives, and Richard Finch with assistance from Jessica Gomula-Colvin and Mike Hornyak. The 5 7/8 by 7 7/8 inch image was accomplished by sugarlift and aquatint techniques.

Astronomer
by John Himmelfarb

Astronomer, a two color intaglio print on Arches Cover, white paper in blue ink with a surface roll of yellow ink, is the fourth contract project printed for John Himmelfarb. This edition of 40 prints was hand-printed by Jessica Gomula-Colvin with assistance from Jessica Benjamin, Richard Finch, Mike Hornyak and Veda Rives. This sugarlift and aquatint print is 7 7/8 by 5 7/8 inches.

Woman as a Fountain: Courtyard Sculpture Project is the title of the intaglio print by Ilya Kabakov. The 23 7/8 by 17 3/4 inch image is a combination of line etching and softground techniques printed in brown-black ink on BFK Rives, white paper. The edition of 31 prints was hand-

GRANT AWARD 1999-2000

We are very pleased to report that the Illinois Arts Council has awarded a grant supporting Rodney Carswell: A Short-Term Artist Residency at Normal Editions Workshop. A painter from Chicago, Rodney Carswell is a faculty member of the School of Art and Design, University of Illinois-Chicago. Rodney Carswell has a BFA from University of New Mexico and an MFA from University of Colorado. Recent Fellowship awards include: Louis Comfort Tiffany, National Endowment for the Arts, John Simon Guggenheim, Arts Midwest Regional NEA, and Illinois Arts Council. A one-week visiting artist residency at Normal Editions Workshop is scheduled for Spring 2000. Planned activities include a public lecture to community and campus members regarding his work, artistic insights, current endeavors, and recent achievements; in addition to public presentations with demonstrations of his working methods as he explores the challenging, expressive, and creative potentials of printmaking in collaboration with the professional staff at N.E.W. to produce limited edition prints.

PRINT EXHIBITIONS AVAILABLE

Prints from the Normal Editions Workshop was hosted by the Fine Arts Gallery, Ohio State University at Marion, from December 4, 1998 through January 5, 1999. The exhibition featured seventeen selected prints from the N.E.W. archives and the private collection of Todd DeVriese. Mr. DeVriese is an Illinois State University alum, a former N.E.W. Assistant Director, and currently a member of the faculty at Ohio State University, Marion.

Contemporary Prints was hosted by the Hemmens Cultural Center in Elgin, Illinois. This exhibit contains nineteen prints co-published by Normal Editions Workshop and University Art Galleries since 1988 and was partially funded by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council to provide Illinois museums, art centers, and other university galleries with opportunities to view the results of years of collaboration with contemporary artists. This exhibition is scheduled tentatively at the Tweed Art Museum at the University of Minnesota, Duluth in early 2000.

Other exhibits available from N.E.W. include Normal Editions Workshop: A Print Retrospective, documenting all of the major editions published by N.E.W.; Illinois Artists at Normal Editions Workshop, featuring forty works by artists from Illinois; and Normal Editions Workshop: The Intimate Print, featuring forty prints uniformly mounted on 18" by 24" mat boards under plexiglass. Rental fees, insurance costs, and shipping charges apply. The rental fees may be applied to the purchase of impressions from the editions featured in the exhibition. The above mentioned exhibits are listed in the ARTSTOUR 1999-2001 program of the Illinois Arts Council. Institutions in Illinois interested in hosting one or more of these exhibits may apply to the Illinois Arts Council for funding. For more information regarding this program, contact the IAC at 1-800-237-6994.

These exhibitions represent N.E.W.'s ongoing commitment to the production of visual images in collaboration with visiting artists and the distribution of these images to promote visual dialogue with a variety of audiences.

GUEST ARTIST

Michael Chandler, a native of Iowa who now lives and works on the Hudson River in Garrison, New York, will be in Bloomington-Normal for a week beginning February 7th. The artist's visit is in connection with the exhibition Michael Chandler: Landscape+States of Nature which will be hosted by The McLean County Arts Center January 8 - February 15, 2000. Mr. Chandler will be at Normal Editions Workshop for a collaboration on a lithographic print with our staff and will present a public lecture on Thursday, February 10th at 11:00 a.m. in CVA room 149. Members of the public and university community are encouraged to attend. All interested persons are invited to stop by CVA room 129 to observe the collaboration process in our workshop. Other activities for the artist and public will be hosted by McLean County Arts Center which is located at 601 N. East, Bloomington, Illinois. Phone: (309) 829-0011 for further information.

N.E.W. AWARDS

Gail David Ratcliff III was awarded the N.E.W. 1999-2000 Scholarship. Each spring the Art Department's scholarship committee reviews slide portfolios submitted by the art students to select winners for a variety of awards and scholarships. The N.E.W. Scholarship is open to both graduate and undergraduate art students with an emphasis in printmaking and who will be attending ISU in the following academic year.

N.E.W. again sponsored two awards for printmaking at the 1999 Student Annual Exhibition. Marilee Salvator received the Undergraduate Award and Jessica Gomula-Colvin received the Graduate award.

REPORT ON 1998-99 GRANT AWARD

John Phillips: Artist Residency and Collaboration at Normal Editions Workshop is our most recent project funded in part by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council. John Phillips is an established Chicago artist who had a one-week visiting artist residency in January 1999. Activities included a public lecture regarding his work, artistic insights, current endeavors, and recent achievements; and public presentations with demonstrations of his working methods. These events were very well attended by both the general public and the University faculty, staff, and students. In addition to the public lecture and presentations, Mr. Phillips collaborated with the Normal Editions Workshop staff during his stay to produce three limited edition prints. One is a seven color lithograph utilizing vibrant colors and photographic techniques. The 26 1/2 by 34 inch image is printed on BFK Rives, white paper. The second and third editions are three color lithographs measuring 19 1/2 by 24 inches with a paper variant. The artist drew images

STUDENT WORKERS

Congratulations to several of our recent student workers for their achievements. Mike Hornyak and Amy Schmierbach each earned a Master of Fine Arts degree in Printmaking in 1999. Matt Pulford graduated in May with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Printmaking and Jessica Benjamin earned a Bachelor of Arts degree. Amy Schmierbach will be teaching Drawing, Color Theory, and Creative Approaches at Fort Hays State University in Fort Hays, Kansas, Spring 2000. Matt Pulford is now at Illinois State University Galleries. Jessica Benjamin was the Printmaking and Painting Assistant at Anderson Ranch Art Center summer program in Colorado, and Melissa Haviland (BFA 1998) entered into the graduate program at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

MFA DEGREE APPLICATIONS

Master of Fine Arts Degree applications in Printmaking for Fall 2000 are being accepted. Information about and applications for the degree program are available from the Department of Art. Contact Richard Finch for details. Complete applications should be received by February 1, 2000.

PROJECT PROPOSALS WELCOME

Interested persons are encouraged to submit project proposals in writing for consideration as future projects. Also available: contract printing rates for limited editions and daily rates for monotype sessions. A cordial invitation is extended to the community and Illinois State University students, faculty and staff to stop by our facilities, room 129A in the Center for the Visual Arts building (CVA).

SUMMER PRINTMAKING WORKSHOP

The 1999 Summer Workshop, taught by Professor Richard Finch, offered all levels of intaglio and lithographic processes. The large enrollment was divided into beginning lithography, beginning intaglio, and advanced intaglio. Amy Schmierbach's contributions as a Graduate Assistant were invaluable to the success of the classes. Students worked in color as well as black and white in the areas of monotype, stone and plate in lithography, and utilized both zinc and copper plates in etching, aquatint, drypoint. Other course offerings in Printmaking are planned for 2000, pending budget approval. If you would be interested, please let us know your areas of interest and we will do our best to accommodate your needs.
